Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for the Louisiana Stallion Stakes a horse must be sired by a Louisiana registered stallion that stands in Louisiana, which stallion must, himself, be nominated to the Louisiana Stallion Stakes on a seasonal basis. The fee to nominate a stallion to the Louisiana Stallion Stakes was an amount equal to 50% of the highest advertised stud fee in 2007, but not less than $500.

When his nomination fee was paid, all foals conceived in that breeding season were made eligible for nomination to the Louisiana Stallion Stakes.

Owners of eligible foals have two options when nominating to the Louisiana Stallion Stakes.

1. A single payment of $100 by November 1st of the weanling year.
2. For horses not nominated as weanlings, a payment of $500 by November 1st of the yearling year.

There will be a fee of $500 to enter and $500 to start in a Louisiana Stallion Stakes race.

Ten Per Cent (10%) of the total purse shall be deducted to pay Nominator awards to the Stallion Nominator and the Foal Nominator of the first three place finishers. This Ten Per Cent (10%) shall be divided equally between the Stallion Nominator and Foal Nominator awards. Nominator awards shall be paid 60% to first, 25% to second and 15% to third.
